

Kennedys' renovations bring Gosman a guest

Abe Gosman, who just finished building his fabulous oceanfront estate in Palm Beach, has a special houseguest — Ethel Kennedy. Seems the Kennedy estate — less than a mile north of Gosman's — is undergoing some renovations, and Mrs. Kennedy needed a place to stay.

Ava
VAN DE WATER
SOCIETY

Gosman, you may remember, paid $12 million just for the lot for his Palm Beach pad. He bought it from Leslie Wexner, owner of The Limited stores, who paid $10 million for the former Charles Wrightsman estate (513 N. County Road) in 1985.

Wexner demolished the estate (much to many Palm Beachers' dismay), and in May 1988 sold the land to Gosman, owner of Boston-based Mediplex Group Inc., which runs nursing homes and adult care centers nationwide.

de Bourbon Parme, but she did make it in time to work the crowd before dinner.

Williams

U.S. attorney for the Southern District of New York, is a member of the American Cancer Society's national board of directors and has been executive chairman of the Palm Beach office for 10 years.

Among those attending: Fred Brotherton (vice chairman of the organization), Henryk de Kwiattkowski (Judge Williams' son-in-law and a generous contributor to the scholarship fund), Jan Hooker, Bob and Pat Hurbaugh, Bill and Virginia Buckley, Henri and Mossette Keyzer-Andre, Diana Lyons, John Brogan and Mosse Hvide, David Berger

Photos by STEPHEN B. THORNTON/Staff Photographer

Cancer ball Chairman Donna Long (right) with co-chairman Sybil de Bourbon Parme organized the money raiser for the American Cancer Society.

Clipped By:

madcownews

Tue, Mar 5, 2019